By GRACE HOOPER

A SEX-MAD school miss has been arrested after she was discovered to have romped with a teen student 15 TIMES!

Shaundra Cartwright, 42, was taken into custody following a months-long investigation sparked by a tip-off from a concerned family member.

Explicit messages between the pair were discovered on Snapchat.

Paxo quits University Challenge

JEREMY Paxman is stepping down as the host of University Challenge after 28 years, ending his reign as the longest-serving quizmaster on UK TV.

The 72-year-old, who was diagnosed with Parkinson's last year, has presented the show since it was revived by the BBC in 1994.

He will film his last episode this autumn and his final series will air on from August 29 to summer 2023.

The journalist and broadcaster said: "I've had a blast hosting this wonderful series for nearly 29 years. 'I've been lucky enough to work with an amazing team and to meet some of the swottier brains in the country. It gives me hope for the future.'"

In June 2014, Paxman left BBC current affairs programme Newsnight after 25 years as its presenter.

Three shot in London

A 21-YEAR-OLD man has been left with a life-changing injury after a triple shooting in London.

A teenage boy and another man in his early 20s were also injured.

The police were called to Brent after reports someone had been shot.

Officers found the 17-year-old boy with a gunshot wound.

The two men were found nearby. All three were taken to hospital.

The 21-year-old has a potentially life-changing injury, the other man is in a serious but stable condition and the teen's injuries are less severe.

NUCLEAR WAR 'A BAD THING'

— OFFICIAL

MORE than five billion people would die of hunger as a result of a full-scale nuclear war between the US and Russia, according to a new study.

The results of such a conflict would be catastrophic for food production, climate scientists at Rutgers University have found in a peer-reviewed study published in the context of the war in Ukraine.

"The data tell us one thing: We must prevent a nuclear war ever happening," said one of the authors, Professor Alan Roebuck.

The warning comes as "humanity is just one miscalculation away from nuclear annihilation", according to UN secretary-general Antonio Guterres.

Ukraine's defence intelligence agency has warned of fresh

Russian "provocations" at the occupied Zaporizhzhia nuclear plant in southern Ukraine, while a mayor said the city where the power station is based had come under fresh shelling.

Rafael Grossi, director-general of the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA), has described recent shelling at Europe's biggest nuclear plant as "out of control" and "extremely serious".

The new study, published in the journal Nature Food, has calculated how much sun-blocking soot would enter the atmosphere as a result of firestorms created by the detonation of nuclear weapons. They considered six scenarios involving nuclear arsenals of different sizes, five based on smaller conflicts between India and Pakistan, and one based on a war between the US and Russia.

Even the smallest scenario caused famine, with the global average caloric production decreasing by 7% within five years of the conflict.

In the largest scenario, a full-scale nuclear conflict, the global average caloric production decreased by about 90% between three and four years after fighting. The enormous decline in crop yields would cause billions of people to starve to death, 75% of the world's population, within just two years.

Rapper Rocky in court A$AP over shooting

RAPPER A$AP Rocky has been charged with assault with a firearm in connection with a shooting in Hollywood last year.

The star, whose real name is Rakim Mayers, is alleged to have pointed the gun at a former friend during an argument in November.

Prosecutors say he later fired the weapon twice in the direction of the victim, who sustained a minor injury.

The 33-year-old, who has had two US No1 albums, could face up to nine years in prison if found guilty.

The rapper, who had a baby with singer Rihanna in May, is due to appear in court to answer two charges of assault with a semi-automatic firearm.

LA District Attorney George Gascón said: "Discharging a gun in a public place is a serious offence that could have ended with tragic consequences, not only for the person targeted but also for bystanders visiting Hollywood."

"My office conducted a thorough review and determined a special firearm allegation was warranted."

Flood warning across the UK

THE UK can expect days of thunder as heavy rain and floods are set to continue.

The Met Office has issued a yellow thunderstorm warning for most of the UK with conditions potentially causing more flash flooding as well as transport disruption and power cuts.

Communities could be cut off by flooded roads, and the chance of fast-flowing water could cause danger to life.

Heavy showers caused flooding in Cornwall and Devon while storms developed in east coast counties such as Essex, Suffolk and Lincolnshire.

An abrupt end to the heatwave has followed weeks of little rain, which has caused droughts, leaving land parched.

BIGGEST PAY CUT EVER!

Inflation ravages workers' earnings

UK workers saw their pay lag behind inflation at record levels over the past quarter, according to official figures.

The Office for National Statistics (ONS) said regular pay, excluding bonuses, grew by 4.7% over the three months to June.

Analysts had predicted that wages would increase by 4.5%.

It comes after CPI inflation hit a new 40-year record of 9.4% in June and is expected to peak at around 11% later this year.

The ONS said this resulted in a 4.1% drop in regular pay

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

for employees once CPI inflation is taken into account, representing the biggest slump since records began in 2001.

Official figures also showed that the number of UK workers on payrolls rose by 73,000 between June and July to 29.7 million.

Meanwhile, the unemployment rate increased to 3.8% for the quarter compared with 3.7% for the previous period.

ONS director of economic statistics Darren Morgan said:

"The number of people in work grew in the second quarter of 2022, whilst the headline rates of unemployment and of people neither working nor looking for a job were little changed."

"Meanwhile, the total number of hours worked each week appear to have stabilised very slightly below pre-pandemic levels."

Cooling

"Redundancies are still at very low levels."

"However, although the number of job vacancies remains historically very high, it fell for the first time since the summer of 2020."

Vacancy numbers across the UK hit 1.274 million over the three months from May to July, slipping by 19,800 in the first signal the UK's hot labour market could be cooling down.

Chancellor – for the moment – Nadhim Zahawi said: "Today's stats demonstrate that the jobs market is in a strong position, with unemployment lower than at almost any point in the past 40 years – good news in what I know are difficult times for people."

"This highlights the resilience of the UK economy and the fantastic businesses who are creating new jobs across the country."

TOUCHY WOMEN ANGRY ABOUT 'SEXIST' PAINT AD

THE advertising watchdog has received dozens of complaints about a paint ad described as "massively offensive".

The Advertising Standards Agency (ASA) said it was considering investigating Crown Paints' "Hannah & Dave" advert.

Apologising for it, the Darwin-based paint firm said it appreciated "people have differing views on humour". The advert, part of a series called Life Stories, includes a song about Hannah and Dave.

The lyrics state "now a baby's coming and they don't know what it is", before continuing:

"Hannah's hoping for a girl, Dave's just hoping that it's his."

Tweeting about the ad being "beyond mad", comedienne Jenny Eclair said the line was "massively offensive".

She added that Crown needed to "get that offensive baby ad off air" as its creators had "set up a scenario that implies a woman has possibly conned a man into fatherhood".

 Gwyneth lathers up to sell her shampoo

I'd like to GOOP all over her face

SHE may be knocking on 50 but dear Gwyneth Paltrow is still happy to get naked if the role demands it.

And if that role is 'flogging a new line of shampoo', Gwyneth is more than happy to get her panties off.

The actress stripped off and filmed herself in the shower on Monday in her latest bid to promote her pricey Goop products.

Lathering

She teased a glimpse of her incredible figure as she was seen rinsing off and using her Healthy Hair Starter Kit, which is currently on sale for $77 (£64) on her her lifestyle brand Goop website.

Yes, that's right. Sixty four quid for some shampoo! According to her fans,

By GRACE HOOPER

Gwyneth looked sensational in her latest advert as she went makeup-free and sported wet hair while lathering up in the shower.

But while Gwyneth was baring all to flog her shampoo, others had darker thoughts when the photos appeared on the website of the hate-filled Daily Mail.

One mail reader growled: "Phwoaar!"

But another took it MUCH further, commenting: "I'd still like to Goop all over her face but there's no way she'd be getting my number afterwards."

By 'Goop' the dirty Mail reader means SPUNK!

A pal of Gwyneth's said: "Gwyneth is a serious actress and businesswoman. She is not there as some sort of target for gobbets of scalding hot spunk."

Runaway pig nicked by cops

TWO police officers nicked a pig after he was caught eating residents' gardens.

Great Yarmouth PCs Joe Pike and Richard Bladon were called to the Southtown area of the Norfolk resort.

They tracked down the large black hog and took him into their care. Inquiries at the scene suggested the pig was someone's pet, but his owner has not been found.

The officers decided it "seemed a bit harsh to arrest the pig for criminal damage", so took him to a sanctuary.

Police said they were grateful to Hillside Animal Sanctuary for taking the pig in "before he turned to bacon in the heat".

Man stripped to have a kip on car roof

A BIZARRE photo of a man dressed only in his pants and socks while asleep on top of a car has been shared after a night of "commotion" in a seaside town.

The strange incident was caught on CCTV in the car park behind New Parade in Cromer, Norfolk.

Residents reported hearing "commotion" and local man Tom Selby decided to investigate.

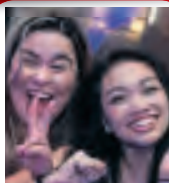

After trawling through footage, Mr Selby said he was "surprised" to see the semi-naked man having a nap on the car – the owner of which is unknown – and described him as being "discombobulated".

"I was a bit confused as to why he was in his socks and pants. It's a first for me I have to admit," he said.

Mr Selby decided to share the amusing photograph online.

One person wrote: "My guess is he's soon going to get married."

GROWN-UP: Ella-Mae in new movie and (inset) as Daisy

By NELSON SAUVIN news@sundaysport.co.uk

FOR fans of Netflix's Manchester-based thriller The Stranger, she was feisty schoolgirl Daisy Hoy...

But now Ella-Rae Smith is playing an all-grown-up part with some VERY adult themes.

What's more, we get to see her boobs and they are an Ella of a pert pair.

Ella-Rae plays Jess in the Sky movie Into the Deep.

The blurb for the film teases: "A young woman desperate for an escape, meets a mysterious and attractive stranger who promises a romantic trip. What follows is deceit, mistrust, and violence."

Enjoying

And as part of the action, she enjoys a steamy romp with Alexandra Daddario's brother Matthew.

One critic slavered: "This girl can do sex! Acting sex, I mean. She looks like she is enjoying it, which is more than my f**king wife does."

As it's set on a boat, it's been compared to the Nicole Kidman chiller Dead Calm, and is available now.

One fan of Ella-Rae said: "She was very good in The Stranger which, despite a stellar cast, was slightly disappointing."

"Good to see her expanding her range, though. And by 'expanding her range' I of course mean showing her firm young breasts."

NAKED NUT CHARGED AT COPS WITH SPEAR

A NAKED man who ran at cops while brandishing a SPEAR was shot by the bewildered officers.

Police say the incident happened after they had attended a building on fire, which was a suspected arson.

Pounding

The next day, they received several calls from people in the same area, saying a naked man was pounding on their door. According to Monroe County Sheriff's Office, deputies arrived at one of those homes and Aaron Hulbert (left) charged the officers with his homemade spear.

He was shot by an officer with the Woodsfield Police Department.

Police said they provided first aid and life-saving treatment on the suspect until paramedics arrived on the scene.

Hulbert was taken to hospital and after treatment was locked up in Monroe County Jail.

Hulbert of Powhatan Point, Ohio, appeared in court charged with attempted burglary and attempted murder

The Prosecutor's Office said he did not enter a plea and the case will go to trial next month.

The charges come from the incident last October.

Bowelbabe's mum thanks wellwishers

THE mother of Dame Deborah James has told how much the support of the public in her daughter's last weeks has meant to the family.

Podcaster and campaigner Dame Deborah, known by her social media handle Bowelbabe, died on June 28 at the age of 40, after being diagnosed with bowel cancer aged 35.

In the first interview since her daughter's death, her mother Heather James, whose Instagram handle is Bowelgran, spoke about Dame Deborah's last few weeks and the outpouring of love and support for the family.

The presenter of the BBC podcast You, Me And The Big C raised £7m for cancer research.

Ms James said: "I still find that amazing, that she had the love of the people out there and that meant a lot, it's meant a lot to the family and it still does. I could not have coped... we were given three to five days, Deborah lived eight weeks."

Supermarket prices rocket by £533 a year

SHOPPERS have seen their grocery bills surge at the fastest rate since 2008 following spikes in the price of butter, milk and chicken, according to new data.

Research firm Kantar has revealed grocery price inflation jumped to 11.6% for four weeks to August 7, compared with 9.9% in the previous month.

It said this equates to a £533 annual increase in the average UK household's grocery bill.

As a result, it reported sales of own-label value products increased by almost a fifth - 19.7% - as shoppers sought to make savings.

Fraser McKeivitt, of Kantar, said: "We've now hit a new peak in grocery price inflation, with products like butter, milk and poultry in particular seeing some of the biggest jumps."

Flasher locked up after 10-day w*nking spree PERV SNARED BY HIS OWN SHOPPING BAG

BAG OF TROUBLE: Ganchev preyed on women

A PERVERT who exposed himself to three women in a village has been locked up for 12 months.

Iskren Ganchev, 35, approached his victims as they walked along a footpath in Otford, Kent, and began pleasuring himself.

Ganchev grabbed the arm of one of the women he targeted during his 10-day spree in June this year.

Another victim was able to take a photo of the suspect as she fled.

Kent Police officers launched a probe and found the suspect was carrying the same shopping bag each time.

CCTV from a local store, carrying the same branding as the bag, was examined and images of the suspect were retrieved then included in a subsequent media appeal.

Seized

Further enquiries then led officers to a location in Halstead, where Ganchev was arrested on 19 June.

Police then seized clothing and shoes he had been wearing during the offences.

During an interview with police Ganchev denied any wrongdoing, claiming that on each occasion there had just been a misunderstanding.

But he admitted two charges of indecent exposure and one of outraging public decency at Medway Magistrates' Court. Ganchev, of no fixed address, was jailed for 12 months and made subject of a sexual harm prevention order for five years.

Detective Sergeant Alan Poulton, of the West Kent Vulnerability Investigation Team, said: "Ganchev's disturbing actions will have had a significant and detrimental impact on each of his victims."

"His appalling behaviour was carried out in an area very close to a school and would have also caused significant alarm and anxiety within the wider community."

"In passing a custodial sentence, the courts have recognised the threat that Ganchev would have continued to pose."

"And we remain determined that everyone should feel safe to walk the streets whenever they choose to, and will continue to do everything in our power to keep it that way."

CIVIL SERVANT PAYOFFS AXED

TRADE unions have reacted angrily to government plans to cut civil servants' redundancy pay by an estimated 25.9%.

It comes as ministers seek to reduce civil servant jobs by 91,000.

The PCS trade union says the government wants "to get job cuts done on the cheap".

But a Cabinet Office spokesperson said in a time of "high national debt and increasing cost pressures" the Civil Service Compensation Scheme should be "affordable" to the taxpayer.

The government tried to cut redundancy payments in 2017, but was forced to scrap its plan when unions took court action.

PCS chief Mark Serwotka said: "Coming on top of a derisory 2% pay offer and the threat of 91,000 job cuts, these cuts to our members' redundancy terms add insult to injury."

He added that his union would "fight these proposals as we did in 2017".

The Prospect Union said it had "no confidence" government consultation on the plans were being "carried out in good faith".

Landlord had 'sex contract' for poor mum

A DIRTY landlord has been accused of preying on a desperate mum-of-five, getting her to sign a 'sex contract' in order to put a roof over her and her children's heads.

Court records show Allan Rothstein (above) forced prospective tenant Candy Torres to sign the disgusting agreement in November 2018 so she could rent a four-bed home in Las Vegas.

Records show she and her five kids were homeless in August 2018, but that they were approved for a federal programme that helps low income families rent from private landlords.

The contract itself was titled "Direct Consent for Sexual Intercourse and Fellatio or Cunnilingus", according to court records.

Housing lawyer Bruce Flammey said: "She was told if she didn't sign this, she wouldn't get the unit. So, for all intents and purposes, it's sex for a place to live. And it's almost sex on demand.

Rothstein was fined £77,420 for unwanted sexual advances and could lose much more if found guilty in the federal case brought against him by Torres.

She said: "Lovely people having sex outside my place at quarter past one in the morning, probably after a sloppy night out.

"Definitely didn't realise people lived here. Hope they had a great night!"

The post on social media was shared with a string of 'crying with laughter' emojis.

The woman confirmed the romp took place on 'steps near Dolcliffe Road' and she heard the noise over the TV.

Shock for boffins RANDY MONKEYS CAUGHT USING SEX TOYS

RUBBING: Monkeys have more time to play

MONKEYS have worked out how to use objects as SEX TOYS, leading to fears we are a step closer to a Plant of the Apes-style monkey takeover.

Long-tailed macaques at a monkey sanctuary on the paradise island of Bali, are using stones for sexual pleasure, according to shocked boffins.

Both males and females were observed tapping or rubbing stones on their genitals during a study.

Stimulate

The researchers collected video footage showing hundreds of examples of males and females using stones to pleasure themselves while in and around the Sacred Monkey Forest Sanctuary.

Males tended to rub or tap at least one stone on their penises, but this did not seem to result in ejaculation.

Females were seen pushing stones under themselves to stimulate their genitals.

The study found that adult females are more selective in choosing the texture of stones, opting for those rougher and more angular.

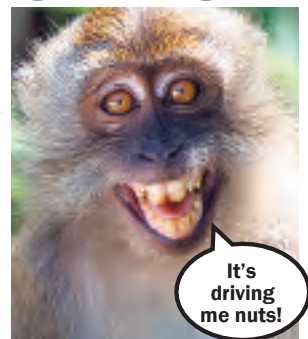

While masturbation is not unknown in primates, it does not usually involve the use

By GRACE HOOPER
neil@sundaysport.co.uk

of external tools and is considered more common among males.

The stone tapping and rubbing by macaques in Bali is believed to be associated with mating behaviour, as well as physiological responses, such as penile erection in males.

The findings are in the article 'Do monkeys use sex toys? Evidence of stone tool-assisted masturbation in long-tailed macaques', in the latest issue of Ethology: International Journal of Behavioural Biology.

Anthropologists added the Balinese macaques may have started using stones because they have more free time, as they are fed by people and therefore spend less time looking for food.

Classic Hardy novel triggers snowflakes

A CLASSIC novel has been slapped with a "trigger warning" to protect snowflake students.

Far from the Madding Crowd by Thomas Hardy, which depicts Victorian rural life, has been slapped with a content warning by the University of Warwick.

The 19th Century classic work by the famed novelist and poet explores the loves and marriages of Bathsheba Everdene including with faithful shepherd Gabriel Oak.

In two passages, some sheep die and Warwick's soppy English Department put the content note on to alert students.

This latest attempt to 'mollycoddle' students comes after it was revealed last week that University bosses slapped more than 1,000 texts with trigger warnings.

Affair lasted two years, cops say

A TEACHING assistant has been arrested after she was discovered to have allegedly been in a sexual relationship with a student.

Shaundra Cartwright, 42, was taken into custody following a months-long investigation.

In June, police were contacted by a concerned family member of a 17-year-old boy regarding a sexual relationship between the child and Cartwright.

After an investigation, authorities found the relationship began about two years ago.

Messages between the two were found on Snapchat.

Detectives found Cartwright had sex with the student approximately 15 times before family members of the student discovered what was going on.

The Millersville Police Department presented the case to a grand jury earlier this month.

Sealed indictments were returned against Cartwright for statutory rape by an authority figure and continuous sexual abuse of a child.

She was taken to the local county jail and charged.

Suspended

Cartwright has also been suspended without pay from her job at White House Middle School in White House, Tennessee, pending the outcome of criminal charges against her.

A police source said: "This was not a single incident, maybe after too much sippin' whiskey."

"This was ongoing abuse and she could not get enough of that young man's part."

Bank tunnel traps thief

A WOULD-BE thief was rescued from a tunnel he was digging in order to reach a bank he planned to rob.

The suspect was buried 20 feet underground after a road collapsed on him.

An eight-hour rescue began after one of his four accomplices escaped from the tunnel and called authorities.

After being given liquid food and a canister of oxygen, the man was eventually pulled out alive to enthusiastic applause from a crowd that had gathered to watch the strange scene in Rome.

He is hospitalized in critical condition.

All five were charged in connection with the tunnel dig, which was allegedly intended to reach the vault of a nearby bank.

UNHAPPY MEAL FOR A MURDER SUSPECT

A HALFWIT murder suspect called cops to complain about being served cold fries at a McDonald's...then ended up in cuffs.

Antoine Sims, 24, was wanted for missing a court date in a 2018 case where he was accused of setting fire to a car with a woman's body inside after a botched drug deal led to a gunfight.

Sims was out on bail and wearing an ankle bracelet when he visited the McDonald's in Kennesaw, Georgia, and got into an argument with the owner.

When Sims went to the counter to get their meal, he found the food's temperature wasn't to his liking.

He asked for a new order of fries but was refused.

"I try the fries, the fries they're lukewarm but they're not hot," he told police when he called them.

When cops arrived on the scene, they realised Sims was wanted for murder and he fled.

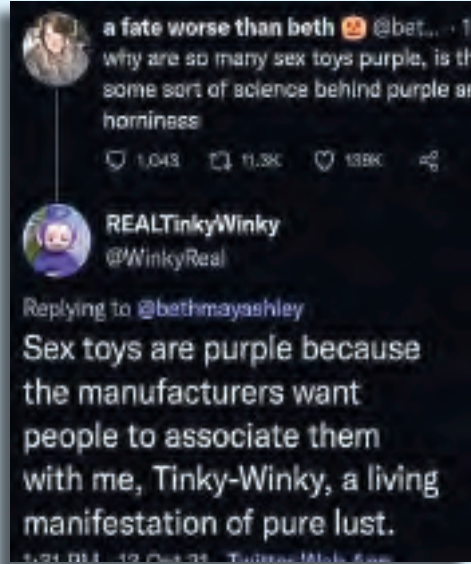

Sims was eventually downed with a Taser and arrested.

Paedo kills himself after guilty verdict

A NONCE died in court after drinking POISON when a guilty verdict was read out.

Edward Leclair, 57, was on trial in Denton, Texas, for five counts of child sexual abuse and had been free on bail.

But on his return to court, Leclair (above) took his own life by chugging a bottle of cloudy water as the verdicts were read.

Denton County District Attorney Jamie Beck said: "Our investigator noticed him chug the water which seemed a little cloudy."

"He told the bailiff he might want to check on him."

"Leclair was found vomiting in the holdover cell and emergency services were called."

Medics tried to revive Leclair. He was later pronounced dead at a local hospital.

An autopsy was ordered, and the cause of death is listed as pending.

THE Big Breakfast is BACK!

In the Nineties, the show hosted by Chris Evans and Gaby Roslin was required watching for anyone in the mood for early-morning Tiswas. And on Saturday, it returned.

AJ Odudu and Mo Gilligan want to revive the "crazy anarchy" of their predecessors.

Former presenters included Gaby, Paula Yates, Mark Lamarr and Denise Van Outen – with Denise appearing as a guest on their first show, assuring AJ the Big Breakfast was the "best ever to work on".

The latest format, which originally aired from 1992 to 2002, is here for the summer.

Newsreader Phil Gayle hopes to continue his tradition of innuendo-ridden headlines.

Like all revivals, it's bound not to be as good as the original. So here's a topless look back at the Big Breakfast's biggest stars.

back. It perforated the lung and the top part of the liver on its way through.

"There were two gunshot wounds in the abdomen, one in the upper right abdomen which lacerated the liver again and then exited the back."

"The second gunshot wound to the abdomen just went through the skin on the right-hand side."

When Kevin Graham learned of Stephanie's horrific death, he instantly smelled a rat.

He even hinted to cops that he believed his wife was probably responsible.

Hitman Walton eventually testified how their dastardly plot had been hatched at the local library.

He revealed: "On that particular day I talked to her, she asked if I was ready. I said I was."

"She said, 'Well then, here's my keys'."

"She gave me the keys to her truck. I took them, went to the truck and unlocked the passenger door."

"I opened the console and retrieved a 9mm handgun, grey and silver."

"I took the gun and put it in my truck."

Walton later told Stephanie he was going to give her a lift out of town. He was taking her on a journey to what she hoped to be the start of a new life.

Instead, he gunned her down in the dirt.

Court documents explain: "Stephanie got into Walton's truck and they drove toward Eufaula, Alabama."

"They stopped at the end of Highway 165, near Bowden Road, so Stephanie could go relieve herself at the side of the road."

Favour

"As she did so, Walton retrieved the gun and shot her in the head and chest. As he was driving away, he ran over her right arm."

Walton testified that he'd killed Stephanie simply as a "favour" to Graham.

He said: "She never told me what she was going to give me, but she said if I needed anything just to call her."

Other neighbours also came forward to reveal how they had overheard Graham talking candidly about how she wanted her own daughter dead.

Stephen Hemilburger, who lived across the street from the Grahams at the time of the murder, said: "Lisa told me she was sick of her and she would pay me $5,000 if I'd kill her."

"I told her she was nuts."

"I thought she was kidding until she reiterated that she wanted her dead and she was tired of spending money on attorney's fees for her."

After a lengthy trial - which was interrupted by the death of the original judge - Lisa

Graham was eventually handed a death sentence in November 2015.

Defence lawyers had argued that she possessed a low IQ and struggled to understand the consequences of her own actions.

It made no difference. Graham was still condemned to die.

Her own mother, Cherie Crabb, lashed out at reporters after the verdict, raging: "The news did this!"

"I hope y'all got children because karma is gonna come back to you and your grandkids. What goes around comes around."

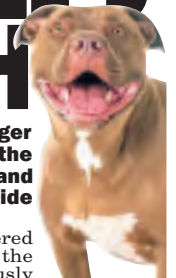

The final word went to Graham's son, Kevin, who pleaded with the judge not to kill his mother, having already lost his sister.

In floods of tears, he groaned: "It won't be long until she's gone. Then I'll have nobody."

Bizarre act caught on CCTV...

BARMY BIKE TEEN PUT HIS WILLY IN PITBULL'S MOUTH

PLONKER:
Teen caught at the gate

A DERANGED teenager flopped his cock through the front gate of a house and invited a PITBULL DOG inside to perform a sex act.

And when the bewildered hound refused the invitation, the troubled teen began furiously masturbating in the dog's direction.

The bizarre incident was caught on CCTV.

In the video, the young man is seen arriving on a bicycle, with his helmet on, and leaving it lying on the pavement.

He approaches the gate of the house and calls the pitbull dog that, according to the owners, is much loved by the residents of the area.

The video shows how the dog approaches the gate.

The teen then puts his hand down his pants, crouches down and tries to pass his member through the gate.

Later, the young man is seen lying on the pavement, furiously masturbating in the direction of the dog.

By NELSON SAUVIN
news@sundaysport.co.uk

He then gets up and flees the scene on his bike.

The owner said: "My dog is always at the gate, the whole neighbourhood knows him."

He added the animal is very placid, so most neighbours play with him when they pass the house in Buenos Aires, Argentina.

It's believed the teen must be local.

The owner said: "You would not pass your private member through a gate to a pitbull because that is inviting genital savaging. This man must have known the dog was docile."

"Still, what a bizarre thing to do."

briony PAUL

SOLDIER Briony Paul was grilled by her superiors after hundreds of her saucy photos and videos were found on X-rated sites – including one of her posing with her regimental tie.

Briony, who has 36C boobs, showed off her svelte figure in various snaps, which got top brass hot under the collar.

The steamy snaps show the babe topless or in lingerie and feature on various nude sites, where she used different names.

The photoshoots and videos were shot before the 26-year-old joined the army.

However, most still remain online – including one profile where she is listed as 'Briony M', with a bio which states that the Peterborough pertlet started her nude career in 2013.

Her racy past shocked colleagues at the time, with one commenting that "the Army hires all sorts".

JUSTIN DUNN'S ROOM 101

WHAT'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

Since when has anything funny been appropriate?

CANCELLED:
Sadowitz

JUST a few years ago, I was stood outside a busy bar called Kitty O'Shea's in Brussels smoking a cheeky Malboro Gold, washed down with an ice-cold beer.

I was chatting to someone I'd never properly met before but was another fellow alumnus of these here Sport Towers.

We were standing opposite the Berlaymont, the grotesque building that houses the dreaded European Commission – aka the Death Star – wondering how on earth we had ended up there.

And, as you do, we shared tales of our lives working for this newspaper and our sister titles Weekend, and, of course, the legendary Sunday Sport.

We both agreed that it was by far the funniest – if maddest – place we'd ever worked.

A place where no joke was off the table.

Nothing was too rude. No affliction or illness or sexuality or even bestial behaviour could prevent a gag being told.

It's called "having a laugh" – and we most certainly still do.

Humour

Unlike the notoriously bland stick-up-arses in the building opposite, who largely didn't even know how to smile.

We were both describing how life is so different when you're outside Sport Towers.

For starters, you learn to speak differently.

That joke you make inside our four walls is not necessarily ready for what others might call polite society.

The dark Jimmy Savile quips and related humour were probably better suited to our former colleagues rather than, say, suits droning on about agriculture and strangely sweet beef stew.

Because as with all comedy, official or otherwise, it pays to know your audience.

I drifted back to that afternoon chat on Sunday after reading the most extraordinary story about what passes for so-called comedy these days.

The brilliant, effervescent, outrageously rude comedian Jerry Sadowitz had just been cancelled by a venue at the Edinburgh Fringe festival.

He's 60, been making people howl with laughter for decades, and is comically offensive to just about everyone who exists.

And his audience love it. Just like they always, always have.

Ah – but not any longer.

Infected

The Humour Police have descended, with a venue denouncing the truly very funny man as not being "appropriate".

Why? Well, the Fringe, like pretty much everything else these days, has become infected by the sour, bitter, humourless sting of the passionately parsimonious left.

Twenty or so right-on beards and braces-wearing lefties stomped out of the gig because he flashed his knob as part of a joke and suggested Rishi Sunak might not be up to becoming the next Prime Minister.

You can imagine what happened next.

All of them re-gathering to get over their invented shock in a vegan water juice bar, sharing the £19 fee for a glass of tasteless shit on their organic credit cards while a restless queue formed behind them.

Meanwhile, back at the venue, hundreds and hundreds of people carried on laughing their tits off.

Banished

But those happy, satisfied, paying customers no longer count in a world where these vacuous c**ts who genuinely think they know better than everyone else are actually allowed to get away with it.

We used to point at these pricks and laugh.

But now WE are standing on the sidelines being pointed at, and like Jerry Sadowitz, banished from polite society.

Just for enjoying a proper laugh. So thanks for sticking with us, dear reader.

It's great knowing that out in the real world, the Quentins and Tamaras don't really matter in the slightest.

They just think they do.

So don't let 'em.

Drought protests hit golfers

CLIMATE activists have targeted golf courses in the south of France, filling holes with concrete in protest over exemptions from water restrictions during one of the worst droughts on record.

France has told residents to avoid non-essential water usage like car-washing and watering gardens. But, activists complain that golf courses are allowed to continue watering greens.

The protest action took place at courses in Toulouse and Deniers.

Defending their exemption from water restrictions, Gerard Rougier of the French Golf Federation said: "A golf course without a green is like an ice-rink without ice."

Extinction Rebellion Toulouse posted a photo on Twitter showing a golf hole filled with cement and a sign saying: "This hole is drinking 277,000 litres. Do you drink that much? #Stop Golf."

The country has been one of the hardest hit by hot and dry conditions across Europe with firefighters battling a 'monster' blaze in forests in the south-west France.

Fact me!

IT is physically impossible for pigs to look up into the sky.

'Thunder' was boom from meteor

A LOUD 'boom' heard across areas of the US state of Utah was likely a meteor, officials said.

Reports of the loud noise circulated on social media at the weekend, with many people posting that they heard a boom.

The National Weather Service's Salt Lake City office tweeted that its lightning detection mapper picked up the meteor's trail flash.

Salt Lake City resident Wendi Melling was just heading out the door when she heard the noise, which she described as a "loud deep booming sound" followed by a few seconds of rumbling.

"It did sound similar to sonic booms I've heard before, followed by a short sound similar to low rolling thunder," she said.

BASQUE TERRORIST!

Porn babe claims she was put on social media blacklist

OUTRAGE: Alana and the pics she says are being banned

A PORN star claims she was put on a TERROR WATCHLIST and banned from social media thanks to alleged dodgy antics at a grumble giant.

In a lawsuit, anal queen Alana Evans says that she and other porn stars were blacklisted after website OnlyFans bribed workers at Facebook parent company Meta.

Adult film stars claim OnlyFans owner Leonid Radvinsky paid staff from Meta to 'shadow ban' them for using rival platforms for their porn.

They argue photos and videos were falsely flagged as containing terrorist content on social media which cut their cash flow.

The claims come in one of a mountain of lawsuits against OnlyFans from enraged stars arguing it had caused them financial harm.

Terrorists

In all, their lawyers claim they have a list of 21,000 Instagram accounts that had been unfairly branded as potential terrorists.

Alana said she was among those whose account was placed in a database run by the Global Internet Forum to Counter Terrorism.

She said: "When I heard that my content may be listed on the terror watch list, I was outraged."

"I was angry because it affected my income when my social media traffic dropped significantly, and I was angry because I am the daughter of a veteran who fought for this country."

The Global Internet Forum to Counter Terrorism, a non-profit organisation, was set up to prevent mass shooting videos and other extremist material ending up on social media.

The alleged move means pictures of models in bikinis on social media would have been flagged as jihadist propaganda.

The names allegedly being added to the list was said to have seen a plunge in traffic visiting their pages on Twitter, Instagram and Facebook.

The lawsuit also claims firms, celebrities and other influencers had been targeted despite 'having nothing to do with terrorism'.

The claimants argue their accounts had been hit from 2018 when they claim OnlyFans bribed one or more Meta workers.

OnlyFans said: "We are not aware of any evidence which supports these allegations."

Meta added it found no evidence the terror database had been abused.

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Ava,

I RECENTLY went on a stag weekend. There were 20 of us and we all pulled a bird on the first night.
My girl was 24 and after we'd been on the booze we staggered back to our hotel, where she smuggled me up to her room.
She stripped to her panties. I groped and sucked her tits, which were an F-cup.
Then she went down on me and gave me the best blowjob I'd ever had before spreading her legs to show me her wet lips.
I was down there like a rat down a hole. Then I turned her over and whacked it into her doggy-style.
After half an hour we both screamed as we came and collapsed in exhaustion.
But since I got back home, I've been getting lots of texts from her saying she wants to move in with me.
But I live with my mum. What should I do?

JG, Lancs

Ava says...
TELL her it was all a bit of fun and nothing more.

Dear Ava,

I TOLD my husband I had to have a walk-in shower room and the work would cost a couple of grand.
He was dead against it, but after a few sexual favours – blowjobs and anal – he finally agreed.
We had it installed and, apart from being well scrubbed all the time, it's transformed our sex life.
We've been shagging like randy teenagers. We christened the shower as soon as the tiles were set and now have rampant sex under the powerful, pulsing jets of water every day.
I particularly love it when I perform a handstand and my hubby goes down on me.
But I have become addicted to showering and shower gel is costing me a fortune.
Any ideas on how to keep the cost down?

LB, Humberside

Ava says...
SUD it! If sex is that good, it must be worth it.

Here comes the bride... over and over again!

Dear Ava,

MY mate and I went to a wedding last week – and just two nights earlier, the pair of us had been shagging the bride silly.
We met her on her hen do and she was having a wild time with a group of other girls who were all flashing their tits.
We ended up going back to her house and it wasn't long before the bride-to-be stripped off and was stroking her nipples.
Then she ripped off my clothes and began to rub my rock-hard cock.
My pal slipped in behind her and gave it to her doggy-style on the carpet while she gave me a fantastic blowjob until I was desperate to shoot my load.

Then it was my turn to f**k her hard and fast while she gorged herself on my mate's dick.

Talk about here comes the bride! I've never seen anyone in such a f**k frenzy and she had orgasm after orgasm.

I hope for his sake that her hubby has got plenty of stamina. What do you think?

FC, Essex

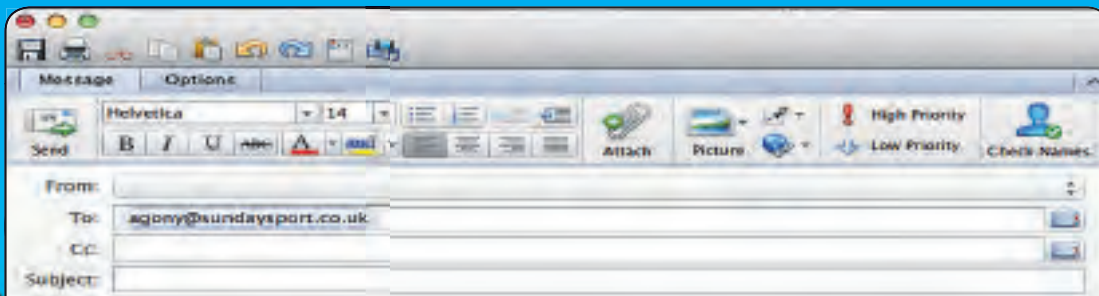

Ava says...

He's probably a stretcher case by now.

I'm paid to get laid by sex-mad MILFs

Dear Ava,

I WORK away a lot in my sales job and spend a lot of my business time operating in the North East.

I often stay at a small hotel run by a divorcee in her early 50s, who is quite a looker. I'm 32 and single.

Because I'm a good customer, I get one of her best rooms with a flatscreen telly and free wi-fi.

And if I'm late back in an evening, she'll bring coffee and sandwiches to my room.

One night I'd put a bit of porn on the laptop, stripped off and had a big wank – but I fell asleep soon afterwards.

Bondage

When I woke up, there on the small table in my room was a tray with some fairly fresh coffee and sandwiches.

The landlady had obviously been in and seen me fully naked, clutching my cock!

I was so embarrassed about being caught, but she didn't seem to mind.

In fact, she became even more friendly and started wearing shorter skirts.

At the bar a couple of nights later I asked what she wanted to drink and she replied with a wink: "Oh a large one, big boy."

After a few more drinks she asked me why I watched porn, when I could get the real thing.

Then she stuffed her hand down my trousers to fondle my knob.

Before long I was shagging her in the quiet back room.

When we'd done, we had a few more drinks and the humping carried on all night – anal, tit wanks, even a bit of light bondage. This busty bird was up for everything.

For a lady in her 50s, she had a hell of a lot of energy.

But she had another surprise for me. Over the next few weeks she introduced me to her similarly-aged female friends, who she explained were rampant for a bit of nookie.

They all offered me hard cash for sex. At first I thought they were all joking but, no, they'd give me £50 for a shag.

To keep her happy I'm screwing her and half-a-dozen of her wrinkly pals every time I'm at the hotel and I'm there as often as I can.

I'm making so much money that I'm thinking of jacking my normal sales job in and pissing off to a sunny country and setting up the same kind of service over there.

But the problem is I think I'm falling in love with the landlady and I don't know whether I should keep shagging women for cash.

What do you reckon?

DR, east Midlands

Ava says...

SUN, sea and sex sounds great. Why not ask the landlady to go with you.

Naked flash has given my neighbours ideas!

Dear Ava,

I'm a single woman in my early thirties and I have a bit of a problem with my neighbours.

My pet dog's barking has apparently been upsetting the locals.

A guy who lives across the road came to complain one day and I'd just got out of the shower when I answered the door.

I don't know how, but my dressing gown blew open and he could see my neatly-trimmed quim and my surgically enhanced breasts.

I think it distracted him, because he soon forgot his rant and he feasted his eyes on me instead.

"Is there something you want?" I asked as he stood there open-mouthed and drooling.

Flirty

Then I heard his wife calling him to come back from over the road and off he went.

At the time I thought that I handled the situation quite well. But the next day, when the neighbour had driven off to work early, his missus came over and started hammering on the door.

At first, I thought she'd come to tell me to keep covered up – and stop giving her hubby any ideas.

But when I answered the door to her, she was all smiley and flirty with me.

I didn't flash my boobs and bush this time – and she went away a little disappointed, I think.

Does she fancy me, too?

JV, Dorset

Ava says...

MAYBE they fancy a threesome with you.

Dear Ava,

I LOVE to have sex with my boyfriend and two of his pals.

I'm a busty 20-year-old blonde, while my fella and his mates are in their early 30s.

I love having a cock in my mouth, fanny and up the bum at the same time.

For our sessions I like to dress up in stockings and suspenders and lapdance for them.

I suck them off and then they take control and f**k me ragged!

Just last week my fella and one of his mates took me up the arse at the same time and it made me climax long and hard!

Another time, my fella pounded into me while I gave one of his mates a blowjob and wanked off the other one.

Then they all spunked their hot stuff over my tits before they swapped places and did it all over again.

I love all this red-hot sex action and I'm happy to carry on this way for some time.

But the problem is my bloke says he wants us to get married and that his cock will then be the only one I'll be getting.

This is so sad. What can I do?

KC, Cheshire

Ava says...

TELL him you're too young to get married and see what happens.

#HOT'N'HORNY

ANGELIC Alexis Jones is glad the hottest part of the heatwave is over.

The 30G cracker from Maidstone in Kent said: "I like it hot but not that hot."

"It's OK when you're on holiday in Benidorm or such like but it's a different sort of heat, isn't it?"

"And when you're on your holiday, you don't have to do things like the shopping and commuting, which are not good when it's so hot."

"Roll on Crimbo, I say!"

IT'S finally time to say goodbye to the creepy Crawleys of Downton Abbey and hello to the horny hotties of buxom Bottomley Manor!

For all you red-blooded fellas who love your porn but are bored to tears by dull Downton Abbey this is your lucky day.

Released last week, the UK's most highly anticipated adult movie is available exclusively through the Sport's adult partner Private Shops and, for a limited time they're offering readers another £5 OFF the already low, low price.

Down On Abby is a big budget, full length adult masterpiece starring porn legend Ben Dover and a cast of the hottest adult stars around. It will transport you to Bottomley Manor, home to the Lord Grabhem (played by Ben Dover), his wife (and 2014 AVN nominee) Jasmine Jae, and their two young promiscuous step-daughters, Abby and Fanny.

The Grabhems have invited the Stiffies to dinner and their staff, led by butler Smallc*** and footman Master Bates, hurriedly prepare to receive their honoured guests.

But during preparations some members of staff have their own ideas of how to make the night go with a bang! As dinner approaches it seems everyone's got more than fancy nosh on their minds. Mind you, there is plenty of noshing as well as lots of other filth that will even cause a crease in Carson's keks.

We see plenty of R18 DVDs at the Sport but this one is really something special and one you MUST not miss!

This future classic stars Ava Dalush as Missy, Cathy Heaven as Lucy, Emma Leigh as Betty, Jasmine Jae as Lady Wanda Grabhem, Jasmine James as Fanny Grabhem, Jess West as Lady Stiffie, Lexi Lowe as Abby Grabhem, Ben Dover as Lord Will Grabhem, Big Bad Dave as Smithers and Clarke Kent as Master Bates.

ALL eyes will be on Baaeed as the brilliant miller bids to make the transition to middle-distance wonder in the Juddmonte International Stakes at York.

Comparisons with the great Frankel have been plentiful as not only does Baaeed arrive similarly unbeaten, but he is also following the route charted by Sir Henry Cecil in stepping up on the Knavesmire.

William Haggas has been quite clear that he anticipates no trouble with the distance – being by Sea The Stars and a full-brother to Coronation Cup hero Hukom, one would imagine 10 furlongs to be within his compass and while Baaeed will be no price, it would be a brave move to back against him.

The only question would be if the ground turns soft, as while Baaeed has won with a bit of cut, deep ground would be new territory.

Last year's winner Mishriff is the threat, but enthusiasm has been tempered by slow starts in his most recent runs, although he can be forgiven his King George effort as he was outstayed over 1m4f.

Aikhall was a 20-1 winner

By MIKE FRANCIS

last time out and while he will be nowhere near that price in the Sky Bet Great Voltigeur Stakes, he is still worth following.

Winner of one of his four juvenile starts, finishing just under five lengths behind Coroeubus and fourth in a Group One on two other occasions, he certainly would not have been one of Aidan O'Brien's leading lights at the start of the campaign.

Clear

Surprisingly pitched into the St James's Palace Stakes on his return, Aikhall cut little ice and on the back of that run he did not have too many supporters when dropped to Group Three company in the International Stakes at the Curragh.

But stepping up to 10 furlongs appeared the making of him, with the Galileo colt showing a fine turn of foot to come home four and a half lengths clear. The mile and a half promises to bring about another chunk of progression, with a shower or two not likely to worry him either.

Local Dynasty is the pick in an intriguing renewal of the Tattersalls Acomb Stakes.

There are a handful of contenders with really solid chances in this Group Three, but Local Dynasty looked a smart recruit when winning by three and a half lengths on his debut at Newmarket.

The son of Galileo got loose before the start, but that proved no barrier to success – a comment that also applied to his evident inexperience – as he ran out an eye-catching winner over seven furlongs.

Obviously this needs more, but big-race entries suggest Charlie Appleby rates him.

Supporters of Ancient Times can get off to a good start in the Sky Bet And Symphony Group Handicap

The four-year-old won his first two starts this term, triumphing by a neck at both Doncaster in April and Musselburgh in June, before heading to Newmarket's July meeting, where he lined up in a typically competitive sprint.

Racing off a career-high mark of 89, he had to settle for a three-quarter-length second behind Celsius, with the third home, Tees Spirit, giving the form a timely boost with a cosy success at Doncaster on Saturday.

Up a further 3lb, Ancient Times should be in the mix.

Frankenstella can build on her recent Knavesmire third in the Sky Bet Stayers Handicap.

Off the track for over a year, she looked in need of the outing but can take a step forward from that.

Joshua: I will up Usyk in the first

BRIT VOWS TO RECLAIM HIS TITLE INSIDE THREE MINUTES

ANTHONY Joshua has cheekily forecasted a first-round knockout of Oleksandr Usyk when he attempts to reclaim his position as unified heavyweight champion in Jeddah on Saturday.

Joshua has spent the last four weeks in Saudi finalising preparations for 'Rage on the Red Sea' and this week he began media duties in a chaotic function room at the Shangri-La hotel.

Looking to win back the WBA, IBF and WBO belts he lost to Usyk when they first clashed at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium almost a year ago, the 2012 Olympic champion looked relaxed as he painted the picture of an early-stoppage win.

"It's good to be back in Saudi Arabia. We've been here four weeks now, this is our fifth week. It feels like a second home, it's been nice," Joshua said.

"May the best man win at the end of the day. I'm praying for victory and praying for a good fight as well. I want to do it this time.

"I'm going to come out... ding ding ding round one. Good defence, thinking positive, step forward... boom boom... one-two... Usyk drops... Joshua becomes the three-time champion of the world in Saudi Arabia.

"Life is good!" When asked if the rematch was the biggest fight of his career, Joshua said: "Yes, most definitely. I've felt that pressure in my camp, 100 per cent. It has pushed me on."

Usyk, meanwhile, enters the showdown at King Abdullah Sports City armed with a message of goodwill from President Volodymyr Zelenskyy as Ukraine continues to battle Russia's invading armies.

BOXING

Usyk insists that, while he is determined to lift spirits at home by ruling out the need for a trilogy fight, he feels as much pressure from a boxing public who have grown accustomed to success.

"He (Zelenskyy) supports me and I will talk to him soon. In every fight I am fighting for my people. I want my fans to be happy with what I am doing and that's why I'm doing it," the former undisputed cruiserweight champion said.

"We are a boxing country. We have many boxers who have been on top for many years and people get used to that, they want high-level boxing, so we need to give them the thing we're used to."

Joshua's gameplan of attempting to outbox a master technician in the first fight backfired as he fell to a comprehensive points defeat and Usyk is an odds-on favourite to post another victory.

Robert Garcia is now in Joshua's corner and new tactics have been promised in a bid to stop the 32-year-old's career from going into freefall.

"I anticipate here in my mind that the style of boxing he will use, but I can't say what it is because he will watch this and change his style," Usyk said.

"I still have some time to go until the fight, but now it's media week so it's more about interviews now. We've done a lot in our training camp and we are ready to show it on Saturday."

ON A HIGH: Anderson

Jimmy's buzzing with Bren

CRICKET

JAMES Anderson says the start of the Brendon McCullum era has the happiest in an England dressing room for years.

Anderson returned to the Test team earlier in the summer after McCullum was appointed as head coach and Ben Stokes was named captain.

The new attacking England side swept New Zealand in a three-match series before seeing off India in the delayed fifth Test early in July.

They return to action on Wednesday at Lord's for the start of a three-match series against South Africa, and Anderson was eager to get back into the Test environment.

"I've been itching to get back in the dressing room to be honest," said the 40-year-old, who has played 172 Tests since making his debut in 2003.

"Those four Tests were incredible. Obviously what we did on the field was great, but the energy in the dressing room was brilliant.

"I felt as happy as I have done in an England dressing room for a number of years, so the last five weeks I've just been itching to get back in there."

While England's attacking has been lauded by players and drew praise for some thrilling Test-match conclusions, its longevity has been called into question.

But Anderson, England's record Test wicket-taker, is confident sticking with the approach is the right thing for the team.

"I don't think it has to come unstuck," he said.

"If we keep working hard at what we're doing we now know we've got the ability to chase anything down and we've got the ability to take wickets in any conditions.

"If we keep playing with that entertaining mindset and also be smart with it as well...there may be times when we can't go hell for leather and maybe we have to soak up a bit of pressure at times and just be smart about when we put pressure back on the opposition.

"That's the biggest learner from the last four Tests, that we can be smarter at times.

"If we add that into our already entertaining mindset and be proactive and aggressive in the nature we play I think we can keep doing it."

UNITED ARE BOTTOM BOYS

Neville fears Reds may yet figure in RELEGATION fight

GARY Neville believes Manchester United are in "special measures" and that they could finish in the bottom half of the Premier League if they do not address their "horror story" recruitment strategy.

The former United defender was vocal in his criticism of the club's owners following a humiliating 4-0 loss at Brentford on Saturday.

The defeat left Erik Ten Hag's side bottom of the table after the Dutchman lost his first competitive game in charge a week earlier at home to Brighton.

Neville spoke out about what he considered to be poor ownership of the club from the Glazer family and on Sky Sports Monday Night Football, the ex-Valencia boss continued his evaluation.

"When a school is underperforming and getting poor results regularly over a period of time they get put in special measures by the Government and the kids don't get blamed," he said.

"That is where Manchester United are, it is special measures and you can't blame the kids any more."

"It is a horror story from a recruitment point of view."

"I know there is a big call for blaming the players and we have blamed the players a lot over the last 10 years – I was excited about those players coming to the club as many people were."

"Even last year with Jadon Sancho, Rafael Varane, Cristiano Ronaldo – great signings."

"When Angel Di Maria came, we said it would be a great signing."

"But it has just become a real graveyard for football players this football club, where players are considering whether to even come to the club, they can't get players in."

Neville was joined in the studio by former Liverpool and England defender Jamie Carragher and revealed the pair had been analysing United's signings over the past decade.

The pair listed just two signings as successful as the fallout from their dire start to the season continued.

Only Zlatan Ibrahimovic and Bruno Fernandes were categorised as either performing on the pitch or proving value for money after signing for the Red Devils.

"It has been one of the problems United have had for 10 years, they have flip flopped between different managers and different strategies and allowed managers to influence the actual overall recruitment at the club," said Neville.

By ANDY MILLOM

"That has been a massive issue. We looked at the last 10 years of major signings at the club, we removed third goalkeepers and some of the younger players."

"But £1.25 billion has been spent and we categorised them – we did it together, some do not agree."

"We think there are only two signings – at this moment in time – that you could say have been good value and performed at a level and, to be fair, Fernandes has gone off the boil a little bit, but because of the numbers he hit in the last couple of seasons, you would have to say that worked, and Ibrahimovic – obviously that worked."

"Ronaldo would have been a green success but what has happened in the last month, he wants to leave, the confusion over him, it is a proper nightmare scenario and it is not working."

Now Ronaldo's immediate future, and how the club respond to a potential departure, could yet leave them languishing in the bottom half of the table, according to Neville.

"I think there is a massive decision to make on Cristiano Ronaldo, they are damned if they do and damned if they don't," the eight-time Premier League winner said.

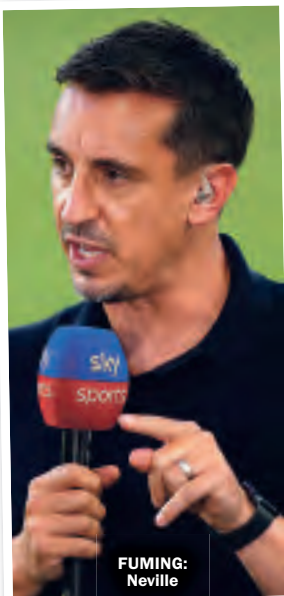

"A few weeks ago, before the season started and before these results, I said the best thing to do was to facilitate a move away for Ronaldo."

"The problem is now, if they lose him there is nothing left in the goalscoring part of the pitch."

"I genuinely think if they don't bring players in or they bring poor players in and he leaves, I genuinely feel they could finish in the bottom half of the table."

"I think that is a bottom half of the table team. That is a massive statement that may look stupid at the end of the season."

"They are demoralised and shot to pieces, it is really bad in there. They have gone back to default."

Sky won't chop Souey over man's game jibe

GRAEME Souness has attempted to clarify his remarks after refusing to apologise for calling football "a man's game" as he gave his views on Tottenham's Premier League draw at Chelsea on Sunday.

The former Liverpool player and manager's comments as a pundit on Sky have been met with a backlash, especially given he was sat next to ex-England midfielder Karen Carney and they came in the wake of the Lionesses' Euro 2022 success last month.

"It's a man's game all of a sudden again," Souness said while analysing the referee Anthony Taylor following a feisty 2-2 draw at Stamford Bridge which saw both Chelsea boss Thomas Tuchel and Spurs counterpart Antonio Conte sent off.

"I think we've got our football back, as I would enjoy football – men at it, blow for blow, and the referee letting them get on with it."

Three-time Women's Super League winner Eni Aluko and Beth England, part of the squad that won the Euros at Wembley, criticised the comments on social media.

In a statement, Souness said: "To clarify my comments from yesterday, I was referring to the two Premier League matches I watched live on Sunday, rather than the sport of football. Football is a game for everyone to enjoy."

Asked if he regretted his comments, Souness replied: "Not a word of it. I've been advocating for years that the referees have such a major part to play in the success of the Premier League."

"We've got to be careful what we say today and I've not been very good at that, but we were becoming like other leagues."

"They were blowing the whistle all the time and it wasn't a good watch."

"Our game has always been unique, more meaty, more in your face and more intense and we got away from that."

"My comments were saying we've got our game back."

"That is the kind of football I remember playing in."

MANAGERS GET READY FOR SOME O

SMASHING THE PREM WINDOW

Time running out for clubs to get vital business done – or wait until January

THERE are just two weeks to go until the transfer window closes on September 1, and several Premier League clubs still have much work ahead of them.

Here, Midweek Sport looks at those with the biggest to-do lists in the final days of August.

MANCHESTER UNITED

Where to start with the misfiring Red Devils?

Saturday's 4-0 loss to Brentford ruthlessly exposed the problems that run throughout a United squad assembled by multiple managers and a muddled recruitment process, begging the question as to whether this squad can play the way Erik ten Hag wants.

Goalkeeper David De Gea looks uncomfortable with his manager's desire to play from the back and, with Dean Henderson gone, needs some competition. Either that or some coaching on how to kick a football.

Newcomers Lisandro Martinez and Tyrell Malacia have added to the numbers in defence, but United still need significant midfield upgrades in addition to the expected acquisition of Adrien Rabiot, with the three-month pursuit of Frenkie de Jong rumbling on.

Martinez is small for a central defender in any league at 5ft 9in but he'll be targeted by every manager in the Premier League – and unless he plays on stilts he can't do a lot about that.

Attack is yet another concern, with Cristiano Ronaldo's seemingly sulky attitude becoming a distraction and Anthony Martial – a player deemed surplus to requirements last season – the primary alternative as it stands. The Marcus Rashford situation is another tough one. In a United shirt, the England forward continues to struggle to hit a cow's arse with a banjo. Despite that, no less than Paris St Germain think he's better than Neymar and want to pair him with Kylian Mbappe.

EVERTON

After a slow start to the window Everton burst into life, with Conor Coady and Amadou Onana following James Tarkowski and Dwight McNeil into the club.

But far more is needed. Former talisman Richarlison must be replaced following his move to Tottenham, with the injury-prone Dominic Calvert-Lewin sidelined again and the veteran Salomon Rondon the only other senior striker in the squad.

Efforts continue to bring midfielder Idrissa Gueye back to the club from Paris St Germain and may be redoubled given the hamstring injury suffered by Abdoulaye Doucoure on Saturday, something Everton can ill-afford given the number of midfielders already in the treatment room.

The situation with Anthony Gordon is another puzzler for boss Frank Lampard. An offer of around £50m for a player who has shown nothing more than promise must be tempting – although it wouldn't go down well with the Goodison Park faithful.

If he does head to Chelsea, Lampard must not squander the cash and bring in a proven centre-forward after losing Richarlison.

LEICESTER CITY

Leicester are heading towards the final weeks of the window still without a major signing.

Departures were always needed to fund new faces, but though Kasper Schmeichel has gone to Nice and Hamza Choudhury has joined Watford on loan, bigger deals are yet to materialise. Arsenal's interest in

OLD FASHIONED PANIC BUYING

SMALL TIME:
United's Lisandro

Youri Tielemans has not been followed up and there have been few offers for the players Leicester want to sell, leaving the Foxes to instead fend off bids for Wesley Fofana, James Maddison and Timothy Castagne. Brendan Rodgers still wants reinforcements in defence and attacking midfield, but time is running out to make that happen as targets sign elsewhere.

WEST HAM

David Moyes has not been shy in this window, with the best part of £100million already spent on Gianluca Scamacca, Nayef Aguerd, Maxwel Cornet, Flynn Downes and Alphonse Areola.

An injury to Aguerd meant Kurt Zouma was the only fit centre-half for the opening two games, full-back Ben Johnson being asked to play out of position in defeats to Manchester City and Nottingham Forest.

Emerson Palmieri is thought to be close to moving across London to provide more experience at the back. He would cost around £13m.

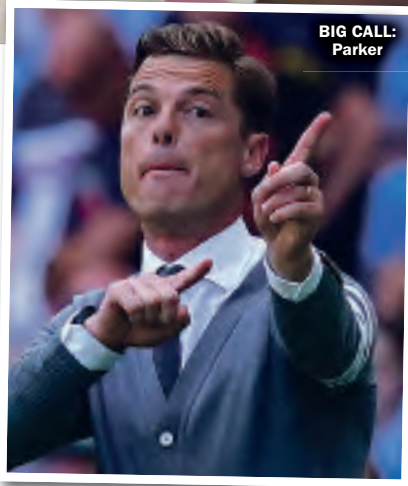

Downes, brought in from Swansea, is the primary back-up to Declan Rice and Tomas Soucek in midfield and there could be another move in that department.

BOURNEMOUTH

Bournemouth were slow to invest on their return to the top flight and although that has finally begun to change, Scott Parker was clear after Saturday's loss to Manchester City that much more is needed.

Parker needs another central defender to follow Marcos Senesi into the club as he shifts to a 5-3-2 formation, having deployed midfielder Jefferson Lerma in defence in the first two fixtures.

Goals are also needed and Parker wants another attacking option after bringing in Kieffer Moore from Cardiff in January.

United and Chelsea want Aubameyang

MAN United and Chelsea are fighting it out for striker Pierre-Emerick Aubameyang.

The hitman was bombed out by Arsenal last season but is already surplus to requirements at Barcelona.

The arrival of Robert

By JOHN ANTHONY

Lewandowski at the Nou Camp means the Gabon international can go.

The Blues thought they had the field to themselves but now United are sniffing around too.

Chelsea are looking for a proven hitman to link up with Raheem Sterling and Kai Havertz. Already they have dropped points despite dominating games.

Barcelona are strapped for cash and would let the 33-year-old leave for £23m as they didn't pay a fee when he arrived in February.

Despite being told he can go, Aubameyang is not thought to be keen on a quick return to the Premier League.

But Chelsea in particular will tempt him with big wages and a large signing-on fee.

United look set to let Cristiano Ronaldo leave if they can bring in a ready-made replacement and Aubameyang would appear to fit the bill.
